The PRESIDENT, before proceeding to the business of the evening, said, in consequence of repeated complaints from Fellows of the Society, of the difficulty of finding seats at the evening meetings, the Council had appointed a Committee to inquire into the subject; and as the result of their deliberations the following Resolution had been passed :—

RESOLVED :—“ That the whole of the centre block of seats at Burlington House be exclusively reserved for members of the Society, and the first row of that block reserved for the Council, the two wings to be devoted to ladies and strangers, with the reservation of the two front rows of the wings for distinguished visitors, and ladies introduced by members of the Council. The rule that a member shall only introduce one lady or one friend to be strictly enforced. After the President has taken the Chair no seats whatever to be reserved.”
